

COMPETITION RULES

INFINITY

DANCE CUP

I. GENERAL RULES

The aim of the Infinity Dance Cup is to provide professional and high-quality competition organization, along with professional support for associations participating in our events. Our competition is an event where the love of movement and dance, as well as passion for art, unite participants in a shared experience.

We consider it important that our events provide a real competitive environment for both amateur and professional athletes.

Our competition is conducted in the spirit of fair play, sportsmanship, and artistic expression.

By submitting an entry, all participants accept the present rules and consent to the promotional use of photo and video materials.

II. REGISTRATION

- Registration is possible exclusively in advance via the <https://gm-events.com> platform.
- A registration is considered complete only if all required data have been fully completed and the music has been uploaded for the given choreography.
- Parents and team leaders are responsible for the competitors' health condition suitable for competition. Team leaders are responsible for the composition of the competition routines and for selecting their level of difficulty.
- Group leaders are responsible for the accuracy of the submitted registration data. The organizers reserve the right to verify competitors' data on a random basis using original photo identification.
- Registrations may be modified or deleted at any time until the registration deadline.

Registrations are accepted only upon payment of the registration fee, according to the method and deadline specified in the competition announcement.

IX. JUDGES

Judges are professionals invited by the Infinity Dance Cup.

Judges are required to attend a pre-competition meeting.

Judges take responsibility for their scores and must be able to justify them.

Each judge must award the best possible score for each choreography.

Judging panels:

- Head Judge
- Technical Judge
- Artistic Impression Judge

X. SCORING

- Maximum achievable score: 30 points
(Head Judge 10 points, Technical Judge 10 points, Artistic Impression Judge 10 points)
- In case of 2 technical judges and 2 artistic impression judges, the average of the two scores counts.
- The final score is the sum of the technical, artistic impression, and head judge scores, including any head judge deductions.

❖ HEAD JUDGE

- Takes notes on choreographies and gives an overall control score (max. 10 points)
- May reclassify a routine from “B” to “A” if necessary
- Applies deductions specified in the rules when required
- Reviews technical and artistic scores; if there is a difference of 1.0 point or more between judges scoring the same aspect, or if bias is detected, the score may be adjusted

Head Judge deductions:

- Leaving the competition area (per occurrence): -0.3 points
- Incorrect music cut: -0.2 points
- Contaminating the dance floor: -0.5 points
- Forgetting choreography lasting more than 6 counts: -0.5 points
- Choreography not appropriate for age group: -0.5 points
- Costume issue (not suitable for dance competition): -0.3 points
- Unauthorized use of set or props: -0.5 points

Deductions are subtracted from the final score!

❖ TECHNICAL JUDGE

- Technical scoring is negative-based: dancers start with 10 points, and deductions are applied according to technical errors. Also monitors synchronization in Duo/Trio, Group, and Formation categories.

Evaluation criteria:

- Execution
- Choreography difficulty
- Lifts and partner work
- Turns, jumps, acrobatic elements
- Synchronization

Maximum score: 10 points per judge

❖ ARTISTIC IMPRESSION JUDGE

- Music and musicality
(style definition, music editing, rhythm changes, effects)
- Dance content
(use of style characteristics, complexity, step variations, choreography structure)
- Transitions
(flow, level changes)
- Space usage and formations
(use of performance area, formation changes)
- Artistry and creativity
(performance quality, natural expression, facial expression)

Maximum score: 10 points per judge

XI. SETS AND PROPS

XII. COMPETITION AREA

The dance floor is a designated area of minimum 10×10 m and maximum 12×12 m.

In the Acro Dance category, the competition area is covered with tatami mats.

Warm-up area:

A designated preparation area located behind/beside the stage. Only competitors, coaches, choreographers, and trainers may enter.

Parents and relatives are requested to take seats in the stands.

XIII. CHANGING ROOMS

Due to the sports hall facilities, it is not possible to provide separate changing rooms for every group. Shared changing rooms will generally be available.

We cannot take responsibility for unattended personal belongings. Group leaders are responsible for order, furniture, and equipment in the changing rooms and are financially liable for any damage caused.

XIV. MEDICAL CARE

The Infinity Dance Cup assumes no responsibility for any injuries occurring during performances, warm-ups, or practice.

Medical assistance is provided throughout the entire competition.

(Please contact the organizers if needed!)

XV. COMPETITION PROCEDURE

- I. A competition schedule is prepared based on registrations.
